HARRISON DESIGN ASSOCIATES IS PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE AN EXHIBITION IN COLLABORATION WITH ROSEGALLERY AT THEIR BEVERLY HILLS OFFICE

Beverly Hills – Harrison Design Associates will display selected photographs and works on paper from ROSEGALLERY artists at their Beverly Hills office, 9355 Wilshire Boulevard. The exhibition will run through August 15, 2010.

Harrison Design Associates' Art Partners program was recently created to provide a platform on which to encourage dialogue and explore the relationship between art and architecture. "ROSEGALLERY was a natural choice for our inaugural Art Partner. They have an indisputable reputation in the art world for the quality and diversity of the artists they represent," says Jesse Harrison who has spearheaded the program.

Jessica Lange

Manfred Müller

Evelyn Hofer

Mark Giorgione from ROSEGALLERY curated the exhibition which includes Evelyn Hofer's beautifully rich dye transfer print of a New York interior, an elegant black and white Jessica Lange photograph from Mexico, and an extraordinary large format photograph taken in Sri Lanka by Virginia Beahan and Laura McPhee that explores the relationship between natural and constructed worlds.

The exhibition also includes two photographs by Canadian photographer Robert Polidori from his series taken behind the scenes in the Palace of Versailles in France and three Manfred Müller wall-based sculptural pieces made from Fabriano paper, which continue his discourse on art and architecture.
